

HEIDI'S VILLAGE

Animal Shelter • Rescue • Safe Haven

Mission: To foster a community where animals are treated with respect, dignity, and compassion.

About us

- Heidi's Village provides short term boarding to other 501(c)3 organizations at a reduced rate for cats and dogs.
- Our primary clients are local animal rescue organizations; however, we also work with organizations to provide temporary care for animals where their humans are facing crisis.
- We provide a one-stop shop for boarding, veterinary care, behavior modification and grooming to our rescue partners.
- Our Smitten Kitten Nursery provides care around the clock to rescued newborn kittens.
- We are an operating arm of the Virginia B. Jontes Foundation. Incoming revenue is acquired from fees for boarding and medical services, donations, and grants.

Why Volunteering is so Important

- Volunteers are one of the most valuable assets at Heidi's Village. The services volunteers provide add great value to our organization. They help us achieve our mission by assisting us in providing quality service to the animals in our care.
- Volunteering is a great way to gain experience in fields that you are currently interested in, have a desire to pursue a career in, or simply want learn more about.
- Volunteering is beneficial in so many ways—one can truly develop a sense of purpose and satisfaction knowing they are helping to make a positive impact in the life of an animal and in their community.
- Volunteering adds experience to resumes and college applications when looking for a new job or applying to a school, while also giving you a chance to meet and socialize with like-minded people that share the same interests and passion as you!

Volunteer Requirements

Trust: Trust that everyone at Heidi's Village is making decisions for the animals in good faith. Our volunteers understand that Heidi's Village always has the best interest of each animal and the safety of staff and the public in our minds and in our decision-making process.

Contact the Volunteer Coordinator for clarification if you don't understand a decision or policy. You may not agree, but volunteers are expected to remain respectful of the time, thought, and expertise that went into making the decision or policy.

Reliable and dependable: Volunteers are counted on in the same way as our employees. We ask that you are present for your shift, arrive on time, and be ready and willing to complete the tasks assigned to you.

Volunteers are required to always wear a volunteer t-shirt, their name tag, long pants, and closed toe shoes.

Demonstrate Respect: Respect the animals in our care. Respect the staff, fellow volunteers, other rescues, and the public. Whether you agree with someone or not, you should always communicate with them respectfully.

Maintain a safe workplace: Commit to following safety procedures even when you're in a hurry. Know your limitations and seek out the appropriate staff member or senior volunteer to assist you when needed. Bring safety concerns to the attention of your supervisor, or a staff member or senior volunteer.
